INSTRUCTIONS

First and middle name(s): In case first name is not the nickname used, mark the nickname with * or by underlining. In case nickname is not any of the first or middle name(s), it is given in parenthesis. (examples of nickname Liisa: Liisa Anneli, Sirkka-Liisa*, Kerttu Liisa, Anna Elisabet (Liisa)).

Place of birth and death: Corresponding to town or city of residence at the time of birth or death, not the location of a hospital etc. In case the form is filled from an ancestor who have died in a war, the place of death can be corresponding to "died in the continuation war", or alike.

Spouse's mother / father: Full name, time and place of birth and death.

Children: In case more than one spouse, indicate with numbers which spouse is the parent of each child (for example Ensio Eemeli(2)). It is expected that the child has the same last name as the father. If the child's last name is not the same, write both first and last names to the column.

Ancestors' information: Place of birth and death, indicate town and house, if known, for example Kuhmo, Lentiira 20 Änätipää.

Signature: even if filled electronically, the form has to be printed and signed.

Other information: All information does not need to be filled, you do not want to some information to be published or if the information is not known. Use the back side of the form or additional forms as necessary.

Contact information (address, email, telephone number) of the person(s) who filled the form are needed for checking the information and possible additional information.

An aim is to find the full chain from grandparents to ancestors at least until 1880's. Older information can be found from the internet.

Important note: Personal information will be used in the Haverinen's genealogy book that will be published later on. If the person filling out the form does not want to have her/his information published, she/he has to personally mark that in the form. In such case, the information will not be published in the book, but it will be used in the registry of the genealogy, to ensure that it can be transferred to the next generation(s). See description of the registry
